Dear Dr. Kusuma Rahayu:

Manuscript ID NFS-02-2024-0033.R1 entitled "Animal source foods consumptions on complementary feeding during COVID-19 pandemic in Indonesia" which you submitted to Nutrition and Food Science, has been reviewed. The comments of the reviewer(s) are included at the bottom of this letter.

The reviewer(s) have recommended publication, but also suggest some revisions to your manuscript. Therefore, I invite you to respond to the reviewer(s)' comments and revise your manuscript.

To revise your manuscript, log into <https://mc.manuscriptcentral.com/nfs> and enter your Author Centre, where you will find your manuscript title listed under "Manuscripts with Decisions." Under "Actions," click on "Create a Revision." Your manuscript number has been appended to denote a revision.

You will be unable to make your revisions on the originally submitted version of the manuscript. Instead, revise your manuscript using a word processing program and save it on your computer. Please also highlight the changes to your manuscript within the document by using the track changes mode in MS Word or by using bold or coloured text. Once the revised manuscript is prepared, you can upload it and submit it through your Author Centre.

When submitting your revised manuscript, you will be able to respond to the comments made by the reviewer(s) in the space provided. You can use this space to document any changes you make to the original manuscript. In order to expedite the processing of the revised manuscript, please be as specific as possible in your response to the reviewer(s).

IMPORTANT: Your original files are available to you when you upload your revised manuscript. Please delete any redundant files before completing the submission.

Because we are trying to facilitate timely publication of manuscripts submitted to Nutrition and Food Science, your revised manuscript should be uploaded as soon as possible. If it is not possible for you to submit your revision in a reasonable amount of time, we may have to consider your paper as a new submission.

To help support you on your publishing journey we have partnered with Editage, a leading global science communication platform, to offer expert editorial support including language editing and translation. If your article has been rejected or revisions have been requested, you may benefit from Editage's services. For a full list of services, visit: authorservices.emeraldpublishing.com/. Please note that there is no obligation to use Editage and using this service does not guarantee publication.

Once again, thank you for submitting your manuscript to Nutrition and Food Science and I look forward to receiving your revision.

Sincerely,
Dr. Mauro Lombardo

Reviewer(s)' Comments to Author:

Reviewer: 1

Recommendation: Minor Revision

Comments:

1. Mention recent references in past 3 years preferably
2. Labeling for graphs should be appropriate
3. Impact of use of animal foods on economic impact needs to be supported with more references
4. Use of Online method should be justified well.

Additional Questions:

1. Originality: Does the paper contain new and significant information adequate to justify publication?: Yes, however few modifications are required.
2. Relationship to Literature: Does the paper demonstrate an adequate understanding of the relevant literature in the field and cite an appropriate range of literature sources? Is any significant work ignored?: Yes, add recent references.
3. Methodology: Is the paper's argument built on an appropriate base of theory, concepts, or other ideas? Has the research or equivalent intellectual work on which the paper is based been well designed? Are the methods employed appropriate?: Yes. Use of Online method should be justified well.
4. Results: Are results presented clearly and analysed appropriately? Do the conclusions adequately tie together the other elements of the paper?: Yes
5. Implications for research, practice and/or society: Does the paper identify clearly any implications for research, practice and/or society? Does the paper bridge the gap between theory and practice? How can the research be used in practice (economic and commercial impact), in teaching, to influence public policy, in research (contributing to the body of knowledge)? What is the impact upon society (influencing public attitudes, affecting quality of life)? Are these implications consistent with the findings and conclusions of the paper?: Yes
6. Quality of Communication: Does the paper clearly express its case, measured against the technical language of the field and the expected knowledge of the journal's readership? Has attention been paid to the clarity of expression and readability, such as sentence structure, jargon use, acronyms, etc.: Readable.

Recommendation: Major Revision

Comments:

Please do the necessary changes.

Additional Questions:

1. Originality: Does the paper contain new and significant information adequate to justify publication?: yes
2. Relationship to Literature: Does the paper demonstrate an adequate understanding of the relevant literature in the field and cite an appropriate range of literature sources? Is any significant work ignored?: Review of literature is lacking the ASF related works. It should include some more literature on importance of ASF consumption and its benefits.
3. Methodology: Is the paper's argument built on an appropriate base of theory, concepts, or other ideas? Has the research or equivalent intellectual work on which the paper is based been well designed? Are the methods employed appropriate?: no, it has major issues like
 1. Questionnaire was not validated and no reliability was calculated as it is sole base of research.
 2. Include Sample size calculation. Explain the base of selecting the given number of subjects.
4. Results: Are results presented clearly and analysed appropriately? Do the conclusions adequately tie together the other elements of the paper?: The study results are very much predictive like if income is high, ASF consumption is high.
Kindly mention some novelty in this research paper.
5. Implications for research, practice and/or society: Does the paper identify clearly any implications for research, practice and/or society? Does the paper bridge the gap between theory and practice? How can the research be used in practice (economic and commercial impact), in teaching, to influence public policy, in research (contributing to the body of knowledge)? What is the impact upon society (influencing public attitudes, affecting quality of life)? Are these implications consistent with the findings and conclusions of the paper?: Please include the knowledge, attitude and practices in the results.
May be the ASF are staple meals for people of indonesia.
6. Quality of Communication: Does the paper clearly express its case, measured against the technical language of the field and the expected knowledge of the journal's readership? Has attention been paid to the clarity of expression and readability, such as sentence structure, jargon use, acronyms, etc.: to some extent

NFS-02-2024-0033.R2 - Animal source foods consumptions on complementary feeding during COVID-19 pandemic in Indonesia

Dear Dr. Kusuma Rahayu:

Congratulations on having your paper, "Animal source foods consumptions on complementary feeding during COVID-19 pandemic in Indonesia" accepted for publication in 'Nutrition and Food Science'.

During our editorial checks on your above submission, it was noted that credit line/ acknowledgment is missing for All Figures/Tables.

I am writing to you with regard to Figures/tables. In order for us to be able to publish these Figures/tables, please include a credit line for all the Figures/tables if you have been given permission to use it. This credit line is still required even if the Figures/tables are your own work.

eg: If you have created the Figures/tables you could just add the source as 'Source: Authors own creation or Created by author'. If the work is adapted or compiled from somewhere the credit line should include the reference, 'table courtesy of Smith & Smith 2007' or in your own words.

Sincerely,
Vinay Naidu

Dear Dr. Vinay Naidu,

It is my pleasure to have my article accepted in the Nutrition and Food Science journal. Regarding the figure and tables credit line on our manuscript, the sources were all from authors own creation. Is there any particular form or format about where we can add the additional information related to figure and table credit?

Thank you.

Dear Kusuma Rahayu, Herwinda; Paratmanitya, Yhona; Herawati, Herni; Tariani, Fitri; Yugistiyowati, Anafrin; Samutri, Erni

It is a pleasure to accept your manuscript NFS-02-2024-0033.R2, entitled "Animal source foods consumptions on complementary feeding during COVID-19 pandemic in Indonesia" in its current form for publication in Nutrition and Food Science. Please note, no further changes can be made to your manuscript.

This email will be followed by a second message containing a copy of your author accepted manuscript (AAM) which is the version that we will typeset and publish in the journal.

Your article will now go through editorial checks by Emerald's editorial team to ensure it meets our publication standards. These checks can take up to five days; we'll be in touch if we have any queries at this stage. Once this step has been completed you will receive an email directing you to Emerald Submit to select your publishing licence and submit your article to production. If you are publishing in one of our subscription journals and wish to make your article open access you can choose this option in Emerald Submit.

If you have not received an email with editorial queries or an invitation to complete licensing on Emerald Submit within 10 working days of acceptance, please do contact the JEO (Journal Editorial Office), you can find their details on the journal homepage:

<https://www.emeraldgrouppublishing.com/journal/nfs>

Please note that it is the corresponding author who must sign the publishing licence on behalf of all authors of your article.

Once you have completed licensing on Emerald Submit, your article will enter the production process and you'll be provided with a proof. You will need to approve your proof before your article is published. If you have any queries about the proofing system you can contact the journal's Supplier Project Manager (SPM) whose contact details are on the journal homepage: <https://www.emeraldgrouppublishing.com/journal/nfs>.

By publishing in this journal your work will benefit from Emerald EarlyCite. Once the above steps are completed your article will be published online in EarlyCite. EarlyCite is the author proofed, typeset version of record, fully citable by DOI. The EarlyCite article sits outside of a journal issue and is paginated in isolation. The EarlyCite article will later be collated into a journal issue according to the journals' publication schedule.

Thank you for your contribution. On behalf of the Editors of Nutrition and Food Science, we look forward to your continued contributions to the Journal.

Sincerely,
Dr. Mauro Lombardo
Guest Editor, Nutrition and Food Science
